RICHARD DUPREE

Richard Dupree graduated with honors from the Interlochen Arts Academy in 1975. There he was Associate Concertmaster in the IAA Symphonic Band and clarinetist with the IAA Octet. In 1980 he graduated from the University of Evansville with a Bachelor of Music Degree. While at UE Mr. Dupree studied with Dr. David Wright. He won the Wesley Sheppard Scholarship and was the 1979 recipient of the Gumberts Award. Mr. Dupree was the principal clarinetist with the University of Evansville Orchestra, and was Concerto Soloist with the UE Orchestra in 1978.

He is presently Associate Principal clarinetist in the Evansville Philharmonic Orchestra, and the Owensboro (KY) Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Dupree is currently studying with Robert Marcellus, former Principal clarinetist with the Cleveland (OH) Orchestra.
